DISC: What Makes Your Team Tick?

1 day

Improve communication and boost your team’s collaborative spirit. Build a better understanding of what makes people tick and how different behavioural styles can work together effectively. Explore the different ways humans work and communicate, using the DISC profile. DISC is a behavior assessment tool which helps people understand themselves and others. It is used to improve communication, build positive team dynamics and help people relate to each other collaboratively.

What you’ll learn to do in this course

You’ll come out of this session with powerful tools for understanding and working with other people. We’ll bring theory to life and help you build a stronger, better team. A range of practical tips will be presented to you. You’ll complete your DISC profile and work through a series of practical exercises. At the end of the workshop, you should be able to:

- Recognise behavioural style differences and why they occur
- Understand yourself and your team-mates at a deeper level
- Develop an action plan for getting the most from your team
- Shift your communication behaviours in order to build rapport with different styles of people

Topics you’ll cover

- What is DISC?
- Understanding your personal profile
- Understanding your team’s profile
- Getting the most from your team
- Communicating across ‘style differences
